

SME Seminar

“Talent Development in the Era of Disruption”

In recent years, the fierce market competition and the technology-driven “new normal” witnessed at different industries have led to fundamental and drastic changes in business models. Whether employees are armed with relevant skills to deal with the new challenges has become the crux of an enterprise’s success. This seminar has invited expert in human resource management to illustrate the effective use of offline training resources to raise employees’ capabilities, in order to achieve higher performance.
